

Dear Chairman Powell,

Please postpone the decision on the proposed rule change loosening up crucial regulations on broadcast ownership. More time should be allowed for public debate before the issue is put to a vote. There is already too much media consolidation at this point in time.